

FOR COMPLETING THE CANAL

EUROPEAN CAPITAL FOR THE NICARAGUA WATERWAY.

JOHN R. BARTLETT GOING ABROAD TO ENLIST FOREIGN MONEY TO AID THE ENTERPRISE.

John R. Bartlett, chairman of the Reorganization Committee of the Nicaragua Canal Construction Company, sailed yesterday for Europe on the White Star steamer Tautouca. A Tribune reporter met him yesterday morning at the Union League Club as he was about to start for his business plans abroad.

There are several large capitalists in Europe who are considering seriously the question of joining in the funds and myself in this country in arranging for the necessary capital to continue the work of the construction of the Nicaragua Canal until it is completed.

Not counting on Congress. Congress has first chance to procure the canal as the property of the American people. The opportunity for acquiring the enterprise was never so favorable before and may never be again.

War over a telegraph pole. Mr. Ryan objects to Mr. Onowitz's workmen using his yard as a dumping ground—more poles to go up.

A chance for American artists. The National Sculpture Society offers two prizes for the best designs in plaster for the United States silver dollar.

Leaving on hotel Castleton wines. Some of the New-York creditors of James H. Rodgers, proprietor of the Hotel Castleton, New-Brighton, Staten Island, have begun legal proceedings here to protect their claims.

The Moslem was taken to court. The war which has for some time been waging between Mohammed Alexander Russell Webb, Mrs. Webb, and Mrs. Keop, for the possession of "The Moslem" in East Twenty-third-st., was carried into Jefferson Market Court yesterday.
